Dear Mahaupasika (Dhammamatta) Wangmo Dixey and Mahaupasaka

(Dhammapita) Richard Dixey. I'm Venerable Upali Samanera, I'm from Bihar (Bodh gaya), I have been a monk student of Mahabodhi Monastery since long time, learning and practicing dhamma under our senior monk teachers.

This year our academic focus was on Abhidhamma Pitaka, Vinayapitaka, Suttapitaka, Pali language and Buddhavamsa. I deeply concentrated on each of these topics and tried to learn as much as I could and practice it.

We also learnt Pali language. In Buddhavamsa subject, I have learned about the past live of our Buddha how he has been full filling the (ten perfection Paramis), It has inspired me to practice the dhamma and instil in me the qualities to develop on the path of the dhamma. I am grateful to all my dhamma teachers for their compassionate teaching. With their kind support I was able to complete my academic course successfully.

This year I got the opportunity to offer my dhammaduta work at our Mahabodhi center, Diyun in Arunachal Pradesh. We have school and hostels for both girls and boys in this center. Apart from my own dhamma study, I also teach the moral classes and meditation to the children in the hostel and school and equip them with moral qualities that helps in their studies and overall wellbeing. It is also a great opportunity for me to share my dhamma teaching

I am very grateful and thankful to your Magnanimous support which you are doing it with so much compassion and generosity. May this generosity conduce to your wellbeing and happiness. I accept this dana with great humility and gratitude. Your faith and your generous support have empowered me to grow in this monk life. May this good kamma be condition for your attainment of Nibbana. May all the merits that you have done and all the merits that I have done support you in your spiritual path.

I share my metta with every individual who is supporting us in our dhamma studies.

Sadhu Sadhu Sadhu

With deep metta and gratitude

Samanera Upali
